The Twelve Apostles

St James, Son of Zebedee

“O glorious St. James, who,
for your fervent and generous heart
was chosen by Jesus to be a witness of His glory on Mount Tabor,
and of His agony in Gethsemane.

Inspire us to be committed witnesses like you.”

forgive your brother

from your heart !

Exaltation of the Cross

~ 14th September ~

We rejoice
that something so terrible should have been transformed into a means of redemption for the whole human race.

OUR LADY OF SORROWS

September 15th

Our Lady of Sorrows is the Feast on the day immediately after the Exaltation of the Holy Cross and commemorates the great union of Our Lady with Our Saviour. The title Our Lady of Sorrows honours the trials that the Mother of the “Suffering Servant” (Isaiah 52:13–53:12) faced, and the struggles of her mission through her Son’s mission are remembered today.

Saints Cornelius and Cyprian

~ 16th September ~

Cornelius was made bishop of the Church in Rome in 251 and, with the help of Cyprian, established his authority there until the emperor Gallus sent him into exile and he died in Civitavecchia in 253. He is buried in Rome.

Cyprian spent most of his life practicing the law and after he converted to Christianity, was made bishop of Carthage in 249. The church saw some troubled times, and in order to continue to support the church, Cyprian went into hiding after the persecution of emperor Decius. In 258, the persecution of emperor Valerian began and Cyprian was exiled and then executed.

He is known for his illuminating letters which are valuable for not only doctrine, but also for their historical contribution to understanding the life of those in constant peril, but with a determination and ultimate commitment to their faith.
