Preparing for World Youth Day 2027

“We must lovingly safeguard the grandeur of humanity.”

- Pope Leo XIV,
Magnifica Humanitas

The Twelve Apostles

St Philip

“O glorious St. Philip, known for your deep trust in God and abundant love,
intercede in healing our worries,
lifting our burdens,
and filling our lives with the joy of the Holy Spirit.”

In Sunday's Gospel ...

27th September 2026

In the Gospel of Matthew,
Jesus tells us :
“John came to you,
showing the way of uprightness.”

SS. Michael, Gabriel & Raphael 29th September

St. MICHAEL, St. GABRIEL and St. RAPHAEL

St. Michael

Pray for me, St. Michael, and also for those I love. Protect us in all dangers of body and soul. Help us in our daily needs.

St. Gabriel

Pray for us, St. Gabriel the Archangel. That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

St. Raphael

St. Raphael, help me to love and serve my God faithfully, to die in His grace, and finally to merit to join you in seeing and praising God forever in heaven. Amen.

Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael are the only angels named in Sacred Scripture and all three have important roles in the history of salvation.

St Jerome translated the Bible from Hebrew and Greek into Latin.

Prayer of St. Jerome:

“O Lord,
you have given us
Your word as a light to shine upon our path;
help us to meditate
on that word,
and follow its teaching,
that we may find in it the light that shines more and more until the perfect day.”

Amen

St Jerome : 30th September

Saint Thérèse of Lisieux: 1st October

St Thérèse (1873-1897) is also known as Saint Thérèse of the Child Jesus and the Holy Face, and is one of the most popular Catholic saints in the history of the Church. In the Diocese of Brentwood, we have no fewer than four schools named after her, in Basildon, Dagenham, Lexden and Rochford. She died when she was only 24 years old, but left a spiritual legacy of simplicity, practicality and common sense expressed in her “Little Way”:

“I will seek a means of getting to Heaven by a little way – a very short and very straight little way that is wholly new. I mean to try and find a lift by which I may be raised to God, for I am too tiny to climb the steep stairway of perfection. Your arms, then, Jesus, are the lift which will raise me up to Heaven.”
